Sentence

'The water that I will give,' says the Lord, 'will become in you a spring of water welling up to eternal life.' John 4.14

Collect

Lord God, our Redeemer, who heard the cry of your people
and sent your servant Moses to lead them out of slavery:
free us from the tyranny of sin and death
and, by the leading of your Spirit,
bring us to our promised land;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from Exodus (17.1-7)

From the wilderness of Sin the whole congregation of the Israelites journeyed by stages, as the Lord commanded. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. The people quarrelled with Moses, and said, 'Give us water to drink.' Moses said to them, 'Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the Lord?' But the people thirsted there for water; and the people complained against Moses and said, 'Why did you bring us out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and livestock with thirst?' So Moses cried out to the Lord,

‘What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me.’ The Lord said to Moses, ‘Go on ahead of the people, and take some of the elders of Israel with you; take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go. I will be standing there in front of you on the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it, so that the people may drink.’ Moses did so, in the sight of the elders of Israel. He called the place Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites quarrelled and tested the Lord, saying, ‘Is the Lord among us or not?’

Psalm 95

1. O come let us sing | out • to the | Lord;
Let us shout in triumph to the | rock of | our sal | vation.
2. Let us come before his | face with | thanksgiving
and cry | out to • him | joyfully in | psalms.
3. For the Lord is a | great | God:
and a great | king a • bove | all | gods.
4. In his hand are the | depths • of the | earth:
and the peaks of the | mountains are | his | also.
5. The sea is his and | he | made it:
his hands have | moulded | dry | land.
6. Come, let us worship and | bow | down:
and kneel be | fore the | Lord our | Maker.
7. For he is the | Lord our | God:
we are his | people • and the | sheep • of his | pasture.
8. Today if only you would hear his voice
'Do not harden your | hearts • as at | Meribah;
as on that day at | Massah | in the | wilderness;
9. When your | fathers | tested me:
put me to proof though | they had | seen my | works;

10. 'Forty long years I loathed that generation • and | said:
"It is a people who err in their hearts
for they | do not | know my | ways";
11. 'Of whom I | swore • in my | wrath:
"They shall not enter my rest."

A reading from Romans (5.1-11)

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us. Much more surely then, now that we have been justified by his blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more surely, having been reconciled, will we be saved by his life. But more than that, we even boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.
