Entry Hymn: 287 The strife is 'oer, the battle done

Sentence: “Peace be with you,” says the Lord. “Äs the Father has sent me, so I send you.” (John 20.21)

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

- 1 Christ our passover has been | sacri-ficed | for us:
so let us | cele|brate the | feast,
- 2 not with the old leaven of cor|ruption and | wickedness:
but with the unleavened | bread of. sin|cerity and | truth.
- 3 Christ once raised from the dead | dies no | more:
death has no | more do|minion | over him.
- 4 In dying he died to sin | once for | all:
in | living . he | lives to | God.
- 5 See yourselves therefore as | dead to | sin:
and alive to God in | Jesus | Christ our | Lord.
- 6 Christ has been | raised . from the | dead:
the | first fruits . of | those who | sleep.
- 7 For as by | man came | death:
by a man has come also the resurrection | of the | dead;
- 8 For as in | Adam all | die:
even so in Christ shall | all be | made allive.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Collect:

Risen Christ,
whose absence leaves us in despair
but whose presence is overwhelming:
breathe on us with your abundant life,
that where we cannot see we may have courage to believe that we may be raised with you. Amen..

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles (Acts 4.32-37)

Now the whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common. With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. There was not a needy person among them, for as many as owned lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold. They laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need. There was a Levite, a native of Cyprus, Joseph, to whom the apostles gave the name Barnabas (which means 'son of encouragement'). He sold a field that belonged to him, then brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

Psalm 133

- 1 Behold how good and how | lovely . it | is:
when families | live to| gether. in | unity.
- 2 It is fragrant as oil upon the head
that runs down | over. the | beard:
fragrant as oil upon the beard of Aaron that ran down over the | collar | of his | robe.
- 3 It is like a | dew of | Hermon:
like the dew that falls up|on the | hill of |Zion.
- 4 For there the Lord has com| manded . his | blessing:
which is | life for | evermore.

A reading from the first letter of John (1 John 1.1-2.2)

We declare to you what was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life— this life was revealed, and we have seen it and testify to it, and declare to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us— we declare to you what we have seen and heard so that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. We are writing these things so that our joy may be complete.

This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him there is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him while we are walking in darkness, we lie and do not do what is true; but if we walk in the light as he himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he who is faithful and just will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

For the word of the Lord thanks be to God

Gradual: 281 O sons and daughters let us sing!

Gospel :

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Jesus said: 'You believe because you can see me.
Happy are those who have not seen and yet believe.'

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

The Lord be with you and also with you.

A Reading from the Gospel according to John (John 20.19-31)

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, 'Peace be with you.' After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.' When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.'

But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, 'We have seen the Lord.' But he said to them, 'Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe.'

A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, 'Peace be with you.' Then he said to Thomas, 'Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe.' Thomas answered him, 'My Lord and my God!' Jesus said to him, 'Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.'

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
