There is a place of welcome around the Lord's Table
for all, regardless of race, religion, gender or sexuality

Approaching the altar at communion. please follow the directions of the sidespersons up the right hand aisle (rather than the centre steps) then proceed to the next space to the left. Return to the pews down the left hand steps

Gluten-free Communion wafers are available on request

We do not allow for dipping the host into the chalice when taking communion. Receiving Communion in the bread only is an ancient practice that continues to be a most acceptable option and even an important one when you might be sick.

The Order of Service for the Eucharist commences at Page 119 of the green 'A Prayer Book for Australia.' The readings and hymn numbers for today will be found in this pew bulletin.

Introit: O Sing Joyfully - Batten

Entry Hymn: 423 God you are Clothed with Light - Harewood

Sentence: As often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. 1 Corinthians 11.26

Collect:

O God,
in a wonderful sacrament
you have given us a memorial of the passion of your dear Son:
grant that we may so reverence
the sacred mysteries of his body and blood that we may ever know within ourselves
the fruits of his redemption;
who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the second book of Moses called Exodus (24:3-8)

Moses came and told the people all the words of the Lord and all the ordinances; and all the people answered with one voice, and said, 'All the words that the Lord has spoken we will do.' And Moses wrote down all the words of the Lord. He rose early in the morning, and built an altar at the foot of the mountain, and set up twelve pillars, corresponding to the twelve tribes of Israel. He sent young men of the people of Israel, who offered burnt-offerings and sacrificed oxen as offerings of well-being to the Lord. Moses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and half of the blood he dashed against the altar. Then he took the book of the covenant, and read it in the hearing of the people; and they said, 'All that the Lord has spoken we will do, and we will be obedient.' Moses took the blood and dashed it on the people, and said, 'See the blood of the covenant that the Lord has made with you in accordance with all these words.'

For the word of the Lord thanks be to God

Psalm 116: 11-18

- 11 How shall I re|pay the | Lord:
for | all his | benefits | to me?
- 12 I will take up the | cup of . sal|vation:
and | call up.on the | name . of the | Lord.
- 13 I will pay my | vows . to the | Lord:
in the | presence . of | all his | people.
- 14 Grievous in the | sight . of the | Lord:
is the | death | of his | faithful ones.
- 15 O Lord I am your servant
your servant and the | child of . your | handmaid:
you | have un|loosed my | bonds.
- 16 I will offer you a sacrifice of | thanks|giving:
and | call up.on the | name . of the | Lord.
- 17 I will pay my | vows . to the | Lord:

- 18+ In the courts of the | house . of the | Lord:
even in your midst O Jerusalem | Praise |- the | Lord.

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Hebrews (9:11-15)

But when Christ came as a high priest of the good things that have come, then through the greater and perfect tent (not made with hands, that is, not of this creation), he entered once for all into the Holy Place, not with the blood of goats and calves, but with his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and bulls, with the sprinkling of the ashes of a heifer, sanctifies those who have been defiled so that their flesh is purified, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to worship the living God! For this reason he is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance, because a death has occurred that redeems them from the transgressions under the first covenant.

For the word of the Lord thanks be to God

Gradual: 420 Jesus Thou Joy- Wareham

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

I am the living bread that came down from heaven,
says the Lord;
whoever eats this bread will live forever.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

The Lord be with you and also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

(14:12-16,22-26)

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb is sacrificed, his disciples said to him, ‘Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the Passover?’ So he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, ‘Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you; follow him, and wherever he enters, say to the owner of the house, “The Teacher asks, Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?” He will show you a large room upstairs, furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there.’ So the disciples set out and went to the city, and found everything as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover meal.

While they were eating, he took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it he broke it, gave it to them, and said, ‘Take; this is my body.’ Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he gave it to them, and all of them drank from it. He said to them, ‘This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. Truly I tell you, I will never again drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.’

When they had sung the hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
