There is a place of welcome around the Lord's Table for all, regardless of race, religion, gender or sexuality

Approaching the altar at communion, please follow the directions of the sidespersons up the right hand aisle (rather than the centre steps) then proceed to the next space to the left. Return to the pews down the left hand steps

Gluten-free Communion wafers are available on request

We do not allow for dipping the host into the chalice when taking communion. Receiving Communion in the bread only is an ancient practice that continues to be a most acceptable option and even an important one when you might be sick.

Collect

O God,

you alone can order our unruly wills and affections:

teach us to love what you command,

and to desire what you promise,

that, among the changes and chances of this world,

our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found;

through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah Jeremiah 23:1-6

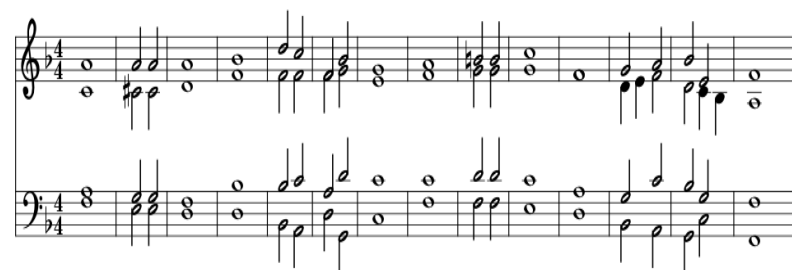

Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the Lord. Therefore, thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the Lord. Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the Lord.

The Righteous Branch of David

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: 'The Lord is our righteousness.'

Psalm 23

1. The Lord | is my | shepherd :
therefore | can I | lack | nothing.
2. He will make me lie down in | green | pastures :
and | lead me • be | side still | waters.
3. He will re | fresh my | soul :
and guide me in right pathways | for his | name's | sake.
4. Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will | fear no | evil :
for you are with me; your | rod • and your | staff | comfort me.
5. You spread a table before me in the face of | those who | trouble me :
you have anointed my head with oil | and my | cup • shall be | full.
6. Surely your goodness and loving-kindness will follow me all the | days • of my | life :

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Ephesians Ephesians 2:13-18

But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one and has broken down the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us. He has abolished the law with its commandments and ordinances, so that he might create in himself one new humanity in place of the two, thus making peace, and might reconcile both groups to God in one body through the cross, thus putting to death that hostility through it. So he came and proclaimed peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near; for through him both of us have access in one Spirit to the Father.

Gospel

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

My sheep hear my voice, says the Lord;
I know them, and they follow me.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

The Lord be with you and also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

Mark 6:30-34

The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. He said to them, 'Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while.' For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
