Introit: De Profundis - Whale

Entry Hymn: 506 Forty Days and Forty Nights

Sentence Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.
Luke 4.8

Collect

O Lord,

who for our sake fasted forty days and forty nights:

give us grace to use such abstinence,

that, our flesh being subdued to the spirit,

we may ever obey your godly will

in righteousness and true holiness;

to your honour and glory,

who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit,

one God, world without end. Amen.

A reading from Deuteronomy (26.1-11)

When you have come into the land that the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, and you possess it, and settle in it, you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from the land that the Lord your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the Lord your God will choose as a dwelling for his name. You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him, 'Today I declare to the Lord your God that I have come into the land that the Lord swore to our ancestors to give us.' When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the Lord your God, you shall make this response before the Lord your God: 'A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous. When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labour on us, we cried to the Lord, the God of our ancestors; the Lord heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. The Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders; and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O Lord, have given me.' You shall set it down before the Lord your God and bow down before the Lord your God. Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the Lord your God has given to you and to your house.

Psalm 91: 1-2, 9-16

1 Those who dwells in the shelter of the | Most | High:
 who abide under the | shadow | of the . Al|mighty,
 2 They will say to the Lord
 'You are my refuge | and my | stronghold:
 my |God in |whom I |trust.'
 9 The Lord him|self . is your | refuge:
 you have | made the . Most ! High your | stronghold.
 10 Therefore no | harm . will be|fall you:
 nor will any | scourge come | near your | tent.
 11 For he will com|mand his | angels:
 to | keep you . in | all your | ways.
 12 They will bear you | up . in their | hands:
 lest you dash your | foot a|gainst a | stone.
 13 You will tread on the | lion . and the | adder:
 the young lion and the serpent you will | trample | under | foot.
 14 'You have set your love upon me' says the Lord
 'and therefore I | will de|liver you:
 I will lift you out of danger be|cause . You have | known my | name.
 15 'When you call upon me |I will | answer him:

I will be with you in trouble
 I will | rescue you . and | bring you . to | honour.
 16 'With long | life . I will | satisfy you:
 and | fill you . with | my sal|vation.'

A reading from Romans (10.4-13)

For Christ is the end of the law so that there may be righteousness for everyone who believes. Moses writes concerning the righteousness that comes from the law, that 'the person who does these things will live by them.' But the righteousness that comes from faith says, 'Do not say in your heart, "Who will ascend into heaven?" ' (that is, to bring Christ down) 'or "Who will descend into the abyss?" ' (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say?' The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart' (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, 'No one who believes in him will be put to shame.' For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, 'Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

Gospel

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ King of endless glory

One does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ King of endless glory

The Lord be with you and also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke 4.1-15

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread.' Jesus answered him, 'It is written, "One does not live by bread alone."' Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, 'To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours.' Jesus answered him, 'It is written, "Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him."' '

Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, 'If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written, "He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you", and "On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone."' '

Jesus answered him, 'It is said, "Do not put the Lord your God to the test."' ' When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time. Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone.

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
