The Order of Service for the Eucharist commences at Page 119 of the green 'A Prayer Book for Australia.' The readings and hymn numbers for today will be found in this pew bulletin.

Entry Hymn: 423 God you are clothed with light

Sentence Thus says the one whose name is Holy: 'I dwell in a high and holy place, but I also live with those who are broken and humble in spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, to restore the courage of the broken.'
 Isaiah 57.15

Collect
 Almighty and everliving God,
 increase in us your gift of faith,
 so that, forsaking what lies behind
 and reaching out to that which is before us,
 we may run the way of your commandments
 and win the crown of everlasting joy;
 through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from the first book of Kings
 1 Kings 8.22-23, 41-43

Then Solomon stood before the altar of the Lord in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands to heaven. He said, 'O Lord, God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven above or on earth beneath, keeping covenant and steadfast love for your servants who walk before you with all their heart, 'Likewise when a foreigner, who is not of your people Israel, comes from a distant land because of your name <<—for they shall hear of your great name, your mighty hand, and your outstretched arm—when a foreigner comes and prays towards this house, then hear in heaven your dwelling-place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to you, so that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you, as do your people Israel, and so that they may know that your name has been invoked on this house that I have built.

For the word of the Lord           Thanks be to God

Psalm 96

1     O sing to the Lord a | new | song:
sing to the | Lord | all the | earth.
2     Sing to the Lord and bless his | holy | name:
proclaim the good news of his sal|vation from | day to [ day.
3     Declare his glory a|mong the | nations:
and his | wonders . a|mong all | peoples.
4     For great is the Lord and | greatly . to be | praised:
he is more to be | feared than | all | gods.
5     As for all the gods of the nations | they are . mere | idols:
it is the | Lord who | made the | heavens,
6     Majesty and | glory .are be|fore him:
beauty and | power are | in his | sanctuary.
7     Render to the Lord you families | of the | nations:
render to the | Lord | glory and | might.
8     Render to the Lord the honour | due . to his | name:
bring offerings and | come un|to his | courts.
9     O worship the Lord in the |beauty . of his | holiness:
let the whole earth | stand in | awe of | him.
10    Say among the nations that the | Lord is | king:
he has made the world so firm that it can never be moved
and he shall | judge the | peoples with | equity.
11    Let the heavens rejoice and let the | earth be | glad:
let the sea | roar and | all that | fills it;
12    Let the fields rejoice and | everything | in them:
then shall all the trees of the wood shout with | joy be|fore the | Lord
13+ For he comes he comes to |judge the | earth:
he shall judge the world with righteousness,

and the | peoples | with his | truth.

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Galatians

Galatians 1.1-12

Paul an apostle—sent neither by human commission nor from human authorities, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised him from the dead— and all the members of God’s family who are with me, To the churches of Galatia: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins to set us free from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, to whom be the glory for ever and ever. Amen. I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting the one who called you in the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel— not that there is another gospel, but there are some who are confusing you and want to pervert the gospel of Christ. But even if we or an angel from heaven should proclaim to you a gospel contrary to what we proclaimed to you, let that one be accursed! As we have said before, so now I repeat, if anyone proclaims to you a gospel contrary to what you received, let that one be accursed! Am I now seeking human approval, or God’s approval? Or am I trying to please people? If I were still pleasing people, I would not be a servant of Christ. For I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that the gospel that was proclaimed by me is not of human origin; for I did not receive it from a human source, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a revelation of Jesus Christ.

For the word of the Lord           Thanks be to God

Gradual: 420 Jesus thou joy

Gospel

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit;
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

The Lord be with you   and also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

Luke 7.1-10

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

After Jesus had finished all his sayings in the hearing of the people, he entered Capernaum. A centurion there had a slave whom he valued highly, and who was ill and close to death. When he heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish elders to him, asking him to come and heal his slave. When they came to Jesus, they appealed to him earnestly, saying,

‘He is worthy of having you do this for him, for he loves our people, and it is he who built our synagogue for us.’ And Jesus went with them, but when he was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to say to him, ‘Lord, do not trouble yourself, for I am not worthy to have you come under my roof; therefore I did not presume to come to you. But only speak the word, and let my servant be healed. For I also am a man set under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to one, “Go”, and he goes, and to another, “Come”, and he comes, and to my slave, “Do this”, and the slave does it.’ When Jesus heard this he was amazed at him, and turning to the crowd that followed him, he said, ‘I tell you, not even in Israel have I found such faith.’ When those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the slave in good health.
