Entry Hymn: 67 O worship the King

Sentence A great prophet has arisen among us! God has visited his people!
 Luke 7.16

Collect
 O Lord,
 from whom alone all good things come:
 grant that by your holy inspiration
 we may think those things that are good,
 and by your merciful guiding may perform them;
 through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

A reading from the first book of Kings
 1 Kings 17.17-24

After this the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became ill; his illness was so severe that there was no breath left in him. She then said to Elijah, 'What have you against me, O man of God? You have come to me to bring my sin to remembrance, and to cause the death of my son!' But he said to her, 'Give me your son.' He took him from her bosom, carried him up into the upper chamber where he was lodging, and laid him on his own bed. He cried out to the Lord, 'O Lord my God, have you brought calamity even upon the widow with whom I am staying, by killing her son?' Then he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried out to the Lord, 'O Lord my God, let this child's life come into him again.' The Lord listened to the voice of Elijah; the life of the child came into him again, and he revived. Elijah took the child, brought him down from the upper chamber into the house, and gave him to his mother; then Elijah said, 'See, your son is alive.' So the woman said to Elijah, 'Now I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the Lord in your mouth is truth.'

Psalm 30

- 1 I will exalt you O Lord
for you have drawn me | up . from the | depths:
and have not suffered my | foes to | triumph | over me.
- 2 O Lord my | God I | cried to you:
and | you have | made me | whole.
- 3+ You brought me back O Lord from the | land of | silence:
you saved my life from among | those that . go | down . to the | Pit.
- 4 Sing praises to the Lord all | you his | faithful ones:
and give | thanks . to his | holy | name.
- 5 For if in his anger is havoc
in his good | favour . is | life:
heaviness may endure for a night
but | joy comes | in the | morning.
- 6 In my prosperity I said 'I shall | never . be | moved:
your goodness O Lord has | set me . on so | firm a | hill.'
- 7 Then you | hid your | face from me:
and I | was | greatly . dis|mayed.
- 8 I cried to | you O | God:
and made my petition | humbly | to my | Lord.
- 9 'What profit is there in my blood
if I go | down . to the | Pit:
can the dust give you thanks | or de |clare your | faithfulness?
- 10+ 'Hear O | Lord . and be | merciful:
O | Lord | be my | helper.'
- 11 You have turned my lamentation | into | dancing:
you have put off my sackcloth and | girded | me with | joy,
- 12 That my heart may sing your praise and | never . be | silent:
O Lord my God I will | give you | thanks for | ever.

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Galatians

Galatians 1.11-24

For I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that the gospel that was proclaimed by me is not of human origin; for I did not receive it from a human source, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a revelation of Jesus Christ. You have heard, no doubt, of my earlier life in Judaism. I was violently persecuting the church of God and was trying to destroy it. I advanced in Judaism beyond many among my people of the same age, for I was far more zealous for the traditions of my ancestors. But when God, who had set me apart before I was born and called me through his grace, was pleased to reveal his Son to me, so that I might proclaim him among the Gentiles, I did not confer with any human being, nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were already apostles before me, but I went away at once into Arabia, and afterwards I returned to Damascus. Then after three years I did go up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas and stayed with him for fifteen days; but I did not see any other apostle except James the Lord's brother. In what I am writing to you, before God, I do not lie! Then I went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia, and I was still unknown by sight to the churches of Judea that are in Christ; they only heard it said, 'The one who formerly was persecuting us is now proclaiming the faith he once tried to destroy.' And they glorified God because of me.

For the word of the Lord           Thanks be to God

Gradual: 543 God of grace

Gospel

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

A great prophet has risen in our midst

God has visited his people.

R. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

The Lord be with you   and also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Luke 7.11-17

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Soon afterwards he went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went with him. As he approached the gate of the town, a man who had died was being carried out. He was his mother's only son, and she was a widow; and with her was a large crowd from the town. When the Lord saw her, he had compassion for her and said to her, 'Do not weep.' Then he came forward and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And he said, 'Young man, I say to you, rise!' The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother. Fear seized all of them; and they glorified God, saying, 'A great prophet has risen among us!' and 'God has looked favourably on his people!' This word about him spread throughout Judea and all the surrounding country

Mayor Craig Langdon and Marie Crow

"Parishioners, friends & family, Op Shop volunteers, former "Lunch Club" attendees and members of the general community enjoyed our Pink Ribbon Luncheon held in a beautifully decorated Evans Hall (thanks Joan). Highlights included a moving address from Breast Cancer survivor Marie Crow, the support of Mayor Langdon, a nice lunch and fun raffle & silent auction. The function which received wonderful support from local businesses, raised over $4000 for the National Breast Cancer Foundation. A very worthwhile day in every respect."
