Sentence

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: you shall love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

Matthew 22.37–40

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God,
give to us the increase of faith, hope and love;
and, that we may obtain what you promise,
make us to love what you command;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from Leviticus

Leviticus 19.1-2, 15-18

The Lord spoke to Moses, saying: Speak to all the congregation of the people of Israel and say to them: You shall be holy, for I the Lord your God am holy. You shall not render an unjust judgement; you shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great: with justice you shall judge your neighbour. You shall not go around as a slanderer among your people, and you shall not profit by the blood of your neighbour: I am the Lord . You shall not hate in your heart anyone of your kin; you shall reprove your neighbour, or you will incur guilt yourself. You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against any of your people, but you shall love your neighbour as yourself: I am the Lord .

For the word of the Lord Thanks be to God

Psalm 1

- ¹ Blessed are they
who have not walked in the counsel of the ungodly:
nor followed the way of sinners,
nor taken their seat amongst the scornful.
- ² But their delight is in the law of the Lord:
and on that law will they ponder day and night.
- ³ They are like trees planted beside streams of water:
that yield their fruit in due season.
- ⁴ Their leaves also shall not wither:
and look, whatever they do, it shall prosper.
- ⁵ As for the ungodly, it is not so with them:
they are like the chaff which the wind scatters.
- ⁶ Therefore the ungodly shall not stand up
at the judgement:
nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
- ⁷ For the Lord cares for the way of the righteous:
but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

A reading from the first book of Thessalonians

1 Thessalonians 2.1-13

You yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our coming to you was not in vain, but though we had already suffered and been shamefully maltreated at Philippi, as you know, we had courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in spite of great opposition. For our appeal does not spring from deceit or impure motives or trickery, but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the message of the gospel, even so we speak, not to please mortals, but to please God who tests our hearts. As you know and as God is our witness, we never came with words of flattery or with a pretext for greed; nor did we seek praise from mortals, whether from you or from others, though we might have made demands as apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, like a nurse tenderly caring for her own children. So deeply do we care for you that we are determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you have become very dear to us. You remember our labour and toil, brothers and sisters; we worked night and day, so that we might not burden any of you while we proclaimed to you the gospel of God. You are witnesses, and God also, how pure, upright, and blameless our conduct was towards you believers. As you know, we dealt with each one of you like a father with his children, urging and encouraging you and pleading that you should lead a life worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory. We also constantly give thanks to God for this, that when you received the word of God that you heard from us, you accepted it not as a human word but as what it really is, God's word, which is also at work in you believers.

For the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord, and my Father will love him and we will come to him.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

The Lord be with you and also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

Matthew 22.34-40

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him.

‘Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?’

He said to him, ‘ “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.”

This is the greatest and first commandment.

And a second is like it: “You shall love your neighbour as yourself.”

On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.’

For the Gospel of the Lord Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Prayers for those in need: (list renewed monthly): Brian Monteith, Leanne Barker, Lesley Tracey, Sarah Tracey, Paul Finch, Dino Fernando, and others known to you.

We pray for those who love and care for them.

2018 Anglican Church Calendars

Orders may be put on the list at the back of the church.

Anne Hill

The Reverend Canon Ray Cleary has been appointed as our Locum during the Interregnum. His first Service will be on Wednesday November 1st for the 10.00 am Communion Service.

Today we farewell Fr Stuart Gardiner as he retires from parish ministry after more than 30 years' service in the Diocese of Melbourne. He has been our priest and friend at St George's since May 2015. We give thanks today for his ministry in this place, as well as his ministries in other parishes and as Area Dean. We will miss him in many ways-for his pithy and erudite sermons; for his gentleness; kindness; common sense, and his dry wit.

We wish him and Gail many blessings in his retirement and thank him for a job well done.
