SENTENCE

Whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.

MARK 10.15

COLLECT

Loving God,
you have made us in your own image,
creating us male and female,
and you have consecrated the covenant of marriage
so that in it is signified the spiritual marriage between Christ and his Church:
pour your grace upon all who are called to this holy state,
that, keeping their promise of faithfulness to each other,
they may reflect in their lives your love for us all;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING

JOB 1.1, 2.1-10

A reading from the Book of Job

There was once a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job. That man was blameless and upright, one who feared God and turned away from evil. One day the heavenly beings came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan also came among them to present himself before the Lord. The Lord said to Satan, 'Where have you come from?' Satan answered the Lord, 'From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking up and down on it.' The Lord said to Satan, 'Have you considered my servant Job? There is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man who fears God and turns away from evil. He still persists in his integrity, although you incited me against him, to destroy him for no reason.' Then Satan answered the Lord, 'Skin for skin! All that people have they will give to save their lives. But stretch out your hand now and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse you to your face.’ The Lord said to Satan, ‘Very well, he is in your power; only spare his life.’ So Satan went out from the presence of the Lord, and inflicted loathsome sores on Job from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. Job took a potsherd with which to scrape himself, and sat among the ashes. Then his wife said to him, ‘Do you still persist in your integrity? Curse God, and die.’ But he said to her, ‘You speak as any foolish woman would speak. Shall we receive the good at the hand of God, and not receive the bad?’ In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

Hear the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God.

SECOND READING

HEBREWS 1.1-4, 2.5-12

A reading from Paul's Letter to the Hebrews

Long ago God spoke to our ancestors in many and various ways by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom he also created the worlds. He is the reflection of God's glory and the exact imprint of God's very being, and he sustains all things by his powerful word. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs. Now God did not subject the coming world, about which we are speaking, to angels. But someone has testified somewhere, 'What are human beings that you are mindful of them, or mortals, that you care for them? You have made them for a little while lower than the angels; you have crowned them with glory and honour, subjecting all things under their feet.' Now in subjecting all things to them, God left nothing outside their control. As it is, we do not yet see everything in subjection to them, but we do see Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, now crowned with glory and honour because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone. It was fitting that God, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through sufferings. For the one who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one Father. For this reason Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters, saying, 'I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters, in the midst of the congregation I will praise you.'

Hear the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

MARK 10.2-16

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Mark.

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Some Pharisees came, and to test him they asked, 'Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?' He answered them, 'What did Moses command you?' They said, 'Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her.' But Jesus said to them, 'Because of your hardness of heart he wrote this commandment for you. But from the beginning of creation, "God made them male and female." "For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.' Then in the house the disciples asked him again about this matter. He said to them, 'Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.' People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, 'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.' And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

This is the Gospel of the Lord, praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAYER FOR MISSION PARTNER

The Mission to Seafarers - Victoria

Loving God, you give us everything. Hear us as we pray for seafarers who endure hardship, danger and discomfort to bring us the goods we use each day. Keep them safe in the palm of your hand and bring them through sunshine and storm to their homes and loved ones. Through Jesus Christ who stilled the storm and called seafarers to follow him. Amen.

Launch of HeartEdge St George

On Sunday 19 September we announced our partnership with the HeartEdge movement. Initiated by St Martin-in-the-Fields, HeartEdge is a membership-based organisation, an ecumenical network and movement for renewal. We are about churches developing four Cs:

- Commerce: Generating finance via enterprise.
- Culture: Art, music, performance re-imagining the Christian narrative for the present.
- Congregation: Liturgy, worship and day-to-day communal life.
- Compassion: Addressing social need via our congregation

We think nurturing each of these is essential for renewal of the church. We do this via networks, communication and resource, growing the movement. Details of our involvement with HeartEdge were sent by email letter during this past week

A video by the Rev'd Dr Sam Wells describing the 4Cs may be found here:

Parish Bring 'n' Share Supper, by Zoom - 2nd Saturday of the Month at 6.30pm

The Parish Bring 'n' Share Supper is a long-standing ministry of St Georges, which ordinarily meets on the 2nd Saturday of the month in either the Parish Meeting Room or the Evans Hall (to comply with COVID-19 restrictions). This supper is a hidden gem of the parish and is a lovely informal supper, which is open to all whatever their connection with St Georges. Indeed, all our activities are open to all.

Commencing 6.30pm Saturday 9 October and running for three months, unless restrictions are eased, we invite you all to join us for supper. We tried this during the long lockdown in 2020 and this initiative was well received. Please consider joining us.

The Bring 'n' Share community invite you to a scheduled Zoom meeting.

Catching-up and dropping in on Sunday evenings at 7pm by Zoom

Ordinarily we connect in diverse ways, most of which are no longer permitted during lockdown. However, some of us have been blessed to be part of different groups that catch-up by Zoom to share news and ‘banter’, which helps to not only maintain connectedness, but also assists with our general wellbeing.

Commencing 7pm on Sunday 26 September and provisionally running through to Sunday 21 November 2021 we invite one and all to drop in and see who is about and share some good-natured social time as we seek to maintain our social connections.

The people of St Georges are inviting you to catch-up and stay connected.
