SENTENCE

Jesus read from the prophet Isaiah: 'The Spirit of the Lord has anointed me to bring good news to the poor, to proclaim release to the captives.'

LUKE 4.18

COLLECT

Life-giving God,
who sent your Son Jesus to proclaim your kingdom
and to teach with authority:
anoint us with your Spirit,
that we too may bring good news to the poor,
bind up the broken-hearted,
and proclaim liberty to the captive;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

NEHEMIAH 8.1-3, 5-6, 8-10

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Nehemiah

All the people gathered together into the square before the Water Gate. They told the scribe Ezra to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the Lord had given to Israel. Accordingly, the priest Ezra brought the law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could hear with understanding. This was on the first day of the seventh month. He read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law. And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up. Then Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God, and all the people answered, 'Amen, Amen', lifting up their hands. Then they bowed their heads and worshipped the Lord with their faces to the ground. So they read from the book, from the law of God, with interpretation. They gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading. And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, 'This day is holy to the Lord your God; do not mourn or weep.' For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law. Then he said to them, 'Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions of them to those for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy to our Lord; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the Lord is your strength.'

Hear the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God.

PSALM 19

1. The heavens declare the glory of God:
and the firmament proclaims his handiwork;
2. One day tells it to another:
and night to night communicates knowledge.
3. There is no speech or language:
nor are their voices heard;
4. Yet their sound has gone out through all the world:
and their words to the ends of the earth.
5. There he has pitched a tent for the sun:
which comes out as a bridegroom from his chamber,
and rejoices like a strong man to run his course.
6. Its rising is at one end of the heavens,
and its circuit to their farthest bound:
and nothing is hidden from its heat.

7. The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul:
the command of the Lord is true,
and makes wise the simple.
- 8. The precepts of the Lord are right,
and rejoice the heart:
the commandment of the Lord is pure,
and gives light to the eyes.
9. The fear of the Lord is clean, and endures for ever:
the judgements of the Lord are unchanging,
and righteous every one.
- 10. More to be desired are they than gold,
even much fine gold:
sweeter also than honey,
than the honey that drips from the comb.
11. Moreover, by them is your servant taught:
and in keeping them there is great reward.
- 12. Who can know their own unwitting sins?:
O cleanse me from my secret faults.
13. Keep your servant also from presumptuous sins,
lest they get the mastery over me:
so I shall be clean, and innocent of great offence.
- 14. May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight:
O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

SECOND READING

I CORINTHIANS 12.12-31

A reading from Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians

For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit. Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many. If the foot were to say, ‘Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body’, that would not make it any less a part of the body. And if the ear were to say, ‘Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body’, that would not make it any less a part of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. If all were a single member, where would the body be? As it is, there are many members, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, ‘I have no need of you’, nor again the head to the feet, ‘I have no need of you.’ On the contrary, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, and those members of the body that we think less honourable we clothe with greater honour, and our less respectable members are treated with greater respect; whereas our more respectable members do not need this. But God has so arranged the body, giving the greater honour to the inferior member, that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another. If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honoured, all rejoice together with it. Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; then deeds of power, then gifts of healing, forms of assistance, forms of leadership, various kinds of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? But strive for the greater gifts. And I will show you a still more excellent way.

Hear the word of the Lord,

thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

LUKE 4.14-21

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone. When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: 'The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour.' And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, 'Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord,

praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Roger and the choir will be in recess until Sunday 6 February 2022 (Fifth Sunday After Epiphany).

Vicar's Leave

The Vicar has not had leave or generally a Tuesday day off since late January 2021. Therefore, John will take time in-lieu from Monday 27 December 2021 until 8 January 2022, then leave away from the parish, 9-14 January, and a combination of time in-lieu, 15-26 January inclusive. The Rev'd Walter McEntee will celebrate all services as normal on Sundays 9, 16 & 23 January. During this period there will be no Wednesday mid-week service of Holy Communion. ## Banyule Council - East Ivanhoe Project Reference Group

Banyule Council have invited the Vicar to be a member of the East Ivanhoe Project Reference Group. The purpose of the PRG is to facilitate community consultation regarding the proposed upgrades to the East Ivanhoe Village shopping strip. Details of the area covered may be found on the poster at the back of the church.

Ms Kylie Angrove, Senior Urban Designer leads this community engagement on behalf of Council. In Kylie's words:

Co-designing community engagement

I expect that I will be touching base with you again in late January 2022 to discuss engagement activities and pop-up events. Various channels of communication were proposed including the church, school and trader groups and I will definitely be looking to utilise these next year.

To keep this conversation going, I will prepare and circulate a collaborative community engagement ideas sheet for you to capture how you might like this project to engage with the local community.

A place to communicate, share ideas, have a conversation

I am currently establishing a dedicated webpage through the Council's Shaping Banyule website for the reference group. This will be a great way for us to easily share and discuss ideas as the project progresses. It will be a space exclusively for project reference group members, and enables ongoing conversations, forums, quick surveys as well as document libraries and the like to all be in one place. We anticipate having this available, along with instructions available before Christmas.

We are keen to hear more from people in your networks

It was great to kick start the discussion the other night about East Ivanhoe and it sounded like there was a great range of perspectives and ideas around the table (December meeting). We have also appreciated the early comments, ideas and feedback via the pins on the Shaping Banyule pages. We obviously want to hear from as many people in your networks as possible to ensure we capture a true and broad understanding of the village.

We have taken on board the suggestion to incorporate the QR code into our communications (see below). This will take you directly to the Map Marker page - <https://shaping.banyule.vic.gov.au/eastivanhoe>. Please feel free to share the link and / or QR code with your networks.

In your discussions with your network you may also want to consider the following three questions:

- What do you think makes East Ivanhoe Village unique?
- What improvements can be made to make you stay longer or visit more often?
- What do you want your village to look like in 5 to 10 years?

Please use the post-it notes to record your ideas and suggestions and pin them to the map on display at the back of the church.

Wedding of Alex and Bea - 11am, Friday 4 February 2022

The first wedding at St George's for some time will be the wedding of Alex, a personal trainer with our neighbours PowerLab Fitness, and his fiancée Bea, a finance professional. Bea's family hope to arrive from Portugal on 3 February, and we pray that their travel to Australia will proceed without any problems. Please feel free to attend this small wedding as we give thanks to God for Alex and Bea and their desire to be married in church.

Ordination Service 10.30am Saturday 5 February 2022

For those who are unable to attend the cathedral, or would prefer not to be in crowds, you may enjoy the service in the comfort of the Evans Hall. The service, complete with stereo sound, will be live-streamed from St Paul's Cathedral onto our large screen in the Evans Hall.

Visit of the Archbishop and Mrs Feier to St George's – Saturday 5 February 2022
