SENTENCE

Now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then we will see face to face. Now I know only in part; then I will know fully, even as I have been fully known.

I CORINTHIANS 13.14

COLLECT

Righteous God,
you confound the world's wisdom
by giving your blessing to the lowly and the pure in heart:
give us such a hunger and thirst for justice
and perseverance in striving for peace,
that in our words and deeds
the world may see the promise of your kingdom,
which has been revealed in Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

JEREMIAH 1.4-10

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah

Now the word of the Lord came to me saying, 'Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations.' Then I said, 'Ah, Lord God! Truly I do not know how to speak, for I am only a boy.' But the Lord said to me, 'Do not say, "I am only a boy"; for you shall go to all to whom I send you, and you shall speak whatever I command you. Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you to deliver you, says the Lord.' Then the Lord put out his hand and touched my mouth; and the Lord said to me, 'Now I have put my words in your mouth.'

See, today I appoint you over nations and over kingdoms, to pluck up and to pull down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant.’

Hear the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God.

PSALM 71.1-6

1. To you, Lord, have I come for shelter:
let me never be put to shame.
2. In your righteousness rescue and deliver me:
incline your ear to me and save me.
3. Be for me a rock of refuge, a fortress to defend me:
for you are my high rock, and my stronghold.
4. Rescue me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked:
from the grasp of the pitiless and unjust.
5. For you, Lord, are my hope:
you are my confidence, O God, from my youth upward.
6. On you have I leaned since my birth:
you are he that brought me out of my mother’s womb,
and my praise is of you continually.

SECOND READING

I CORINTHIANS 13.1-13

A reading from Paul’s First Letter to the Corinthians

If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing. Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends. But as for prophecies, they will come to an end; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will come to an end. For we know only in part, and we prophesy only in part; but when the complete comes, the partial will come to an end. When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became an adult, I put an end to childish ways. For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then we will see face to face. Now I know only in part; then I will know fully, even as I have been fully known. And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love.

Hear the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

LUKE 4.21-30

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Then he began to say to them, ‘Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.’ All spoke well of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They said, ‘Is not this Joseph’s son?’ He said to them, ‘Doubtless you will quote to me this proverb, “Doctor, cure yourself!” And you will say, “Do here also in your home town the things that we have heard you did at Capernaum.”’ And he said, ‘Truly I tell you, no prophet is accepted in the prophet’s home town. But the truth is, there were many widows in Israel in the time of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up for three years and six months, and there was a severe famine over all the land; yet Elijah was sent to none of them except to a widow at Zarephath in Sidon. There were also many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, and none of them was cleansed except Naaman the Syrian.’ When they heard this, all in the synagogue were filled with rage. They got up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town was built, so that they might hurl him off the cliff. But he passed through the midst of them and went on his way.

This is the Gospel of the Lord, praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

2021 National Church Life Survey - Focused on the Future

The NCLS will now be conducted in late January and early February 2022. Over the next two weeks I will home deliver the 2021 NCLS survey, which I hope that you will have time to complete and return to church. I will also send an email out to people with some more information about the survey.

Choir in Recess

Choir practice resumes on Thursday 4 February, and we look forward to welcoming Roger and the choir back to church on Sunday next. We offer our thanks to Cyril for his great gift of music over the summer.

Vicar's Leave

I return to duty today, Sunday 30 January 2022. Thank you for the greatly reduced number of emails, calls and texts over January. We had a few days away at Point Lonsdale, staying in a friend's home, and generally we are quite refreshed.

Banyule Council - East Ivanhoe Project Reference Group

Banyule Council have invited the Vicar to be a member of the East Ivanhoe Project Reference Group. The purpose of the PRG is to facilitate community consultation regarding the proposed upgrades to the East Ivanhoe Village shopping strip. Details of the area covered may be found on the poster at the back of the church.

Ms Kylie Angrove, Senior Urban Designer leads this community engagement on behalf of Council. In Kylie's words:

Co-designing community engagement

I expect that I will be touching base with you again in late January 2022 to discuss engagement activities and pop-up events. Various channels of communication were proposed including the church, school and trader groups and I will definitely be looking to utilise these next year.

To keep this conversation going, I will prepare and circulate a collaborative community engagement ideas sheet for you to capture how you might like this project to engage with the local community.

A place to communicate, share ideas, have a conversation

I am currently establishing a dedicated webpage through the Council's Shaping Banyule website for the reference group. This will be a great way for us to easily share and discuss ideas as the project progresses. It will be a space exclusively for project reference group members, and enables ongoing conversations, forums, quick surveys as well as document libraries and the like to all be in one place. We anticipate having this available, along with instructions available before Christmas.

We are keen to hear more from people in your networks

It was great to kick start the discussion the other night about East Ivanhoe and it sounded like there was a great range of perspectives and ideas around the table (December meeting). We have also appreciated the early comments, ideas and feedback via the pins on the Shaping Banyule pages. We obviously want to hear from as many people in your networks as possible to ensure we capture a true and broad understanding of the village.

We have taken on board the suggestion to incorporate the QR code into our communications (see below). This will take you directly to the Map Marker page - <https://shaping.banyule.vic.gov.au/eastivanhoe>. Please feel free to share the link and / or QR code with your networks.

In your discussions with your network you may also want to consider the following three questions:

- What do you think makes East Ivanhoe Village unique?
- What improvements can be made to make you stay longer or visit more often?
- What do you want your village to look like in 5 to 10 years?

Please use the post-it notes to record your ideas and suggestions and pin them to the map on display at the back of the church.

Wedding of Alex and Bea - 11am, Friday 4 February 2022

The first wedding at St George's for some time will be the wedding of Alex, a personal trainer with our neighbours PowerLab Fitness, and his fiancée Bea, a finance professional. Bea's family hope to arrive from Portugal on 3 February, and we pray that their travel to Australia will proceed without any problems. Please feel free to attend this small wedding as we give thanks to God for Alex and Bea and their desire to be married in church.

Ordination Service 10.30am Saturday 5 February 2022

For those who are unable to attend the cathedral, or would prefer not to be in crowds, you may enjoy the service in the comfort of the Evans Hall. The service, complete with stereo sound, will be live-streamed from St Paul's Cathedral onto our large screen in the Evans Hall.
