HENRY G. LEY

1. Christ our Passover has been | sacrificed | for us:
so let us | cele|brate the | feast,
2. Not with the old leaven of cor|ruption . and | wickedness:
but with the unleavened | bread of . sin|cerity . and | truth.

3. Christ once raised from the dead | dies no | more:
death has no | more do|minion | over him.
4. In dying he died to sin | once for | all:
in | living . he | lives to | God.
5. See yourselves therefore as | dead to | sin:
and alive to God in | Jesus | Christ our | Lord.
6. Christ has been | raised . from the | dead:
the | first fruits . of | those who | sleep.
7. For as by one | man came | death:
by another has come also resur|rection | of the | dead;
8. For as in | Adam . all die:
even so in Christ shall | all be | made a|live.

COLLECT

Almighty God,
through your only Son you overcame death
and opened to us the gate of everlasting life:
grant that we who celebrate our Lord's resurrection,
may, through the renewing power of your Spirit,
rise from the death of sin to the life of righteousness;
through the same Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

ACTS 9.1-6

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Meanwhile Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?' He asked, 'Who are you, Lord?' The reply came, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.'

But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do.’

Hear the word of the Lord,

thanks be to God.

PSALM 30

1. I will exalt you O Lord
for you have drawn me | up . from the | depths:
and have not suffered my | foes to | triumph | over me.
2. O Lord my | God I | cried to you:
and | you have | made me | whole.
3. + You brought me back O Lord from the | land of | silence:
you saved my life from among | those that . go | down . to the | Pit.
4. Sing praises to the Lord all | you his | faithful ones:
and give | thanks . to his | holy | name.
5. For if in his anger is havoc
in his good | favour . is | life:
heaviness may endure for a night
but | joy comes | in the | morning.
6. In my prosperity I said ‘I shall | never . be | moved:
your goodness O Lord has | set me . on so | firm a | hill.’
7. Then you | hid your | face from me:
and I | was | greatly . dis|mayed.

8. I cried to | you O | God:
and made my petition | humbly | to my | Lord.
9. 'What profit is there in my blood
if I go | down . to the | Pit:
can the dust give you thanks | or de |clare your | faithfulness?
10. + 'Hear O | Lord . and be | merciful:
O | Lord | be my | helper.'
11. You have turned my lamentation | into | dancing:
you have put off my sackcloth and | girded | me with | joy,
12. That my heart may sing your praise and | never . Be | silent:
O Lord my God I will | give you | thanks for | ever.

SECOND READING

REVELATION 5.6-14

A reading from the Book of Revelation

Then I saw between the throne and the four living creatures and among the elders a Lamb standing as if it had been slaughtered, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth. He went and took the scroll from the right hand of the one who was seated on the throne. When he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell before the Lamb, each holding a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. They sing a new song: 'You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slaughtered and by your blood you ransomed for God saints from every tribe and language and people and nation: you have made them to be a kingdom and priests serving our God, and they will reign on earth.' Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders; they numbered myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, singing with full voice, 'Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honour and glory and blessing!' Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing, 'To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honour and glory and might for ever and ever!’ And the four living creatures said, ‘Amen!’ And the elders fell down and worshipped.

Hear the word of the Lord,
thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

JOHN 21.1-19

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, ‘I am going fishing.’ They said to him, ‘We will go with you.’ They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, ‘Children, you have no fish, have you?’ They answered him, ‘No.’ He said to them, ‘Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some.’ So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord!' When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the lake. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off. When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, 'Bring some of the fish that you have just caught.' So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, 'Who are you?' because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead. When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my lambs.' A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Tend my sheep.' He said to him the third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, 'Do you love me?' And he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go.' (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, 'Follow me.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord, praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Burton Crescent, East Ivanhoe

Banyule City Council is working with the Victorian State Government to activate our places and spaces

This is an opportunity to trial and make permanent in Burton Crescent some of the ideas you told us during early stages of our East Ivanhoe Shopping Village consultation.

Scope of works scheduled for April 2022

- Footpath widened outside Vinoshis by removing the two carparks and permanently extending the kerb.
- Temporary removal of three car spaces on the western side and install a small linear park. This will include seating, greenery and new trees.

Over the coming months we will activate this space with events and activities and you'll have the chance to chat to Council staff about the project.

Keep an eye out for details on exciting activities in this space.

The Forest Underground: Hope for a Planet in Crisis by Tony Rinaudo

How do you regreen millions of hectares of land without planting a single tree?

In his 17 years in Niger, missionary agronomist Tony Rinaudo discovered an embarrassingly simple method of regreening land without planting a single tree.

It's a technique that not only alleviates poverty and soaks up carbon, but also costs almost 36 times less than planting trees from scratch.

This is not some green fantasy. Farmer Managed Natural Regeneration (FMNR) has, from small beginnings, already regreened more than 25 million hectares in 27 countries, reduced our carbon footprint and transformed millions of lives and livelihoods.

The remarkable story of FMNR is told in Tony's new autobiography, The Forest Underground: Hope for a Planet in Crisis.

This book offers tangible hope for climate change, as well as a deeply moving re-count of one man's faith-journey.

In a seemingly hopeless crisis, this is the good-news story that will move hearts and hands to care for the planet.

"FMNR is probably the largest positive environmental transformation in the Sahel and, perhaps, in all of Africa."

Chris Reij, Sustainable Land Management Specialist at the World Resources Institute

"Tony Rinaudo presents practical solutions to counter desertification, famine and despair."

Ole von Uexkull, Executive Director of the Right Livelihood Award Foundation

"For years I have longed to see this biography written. And it lives up to my every hope."

Tim Costello, CEO World Vision Australia 2004–2016

"No research program—no matter how well funded—would have come up with this idea, because it expertly combines the subtleties of location-specific tree selection with farmer-specific opportunities and constraints."

Richard Strzaker, Principal Research Scientist, CSIRO, Australia's national science agency
