Community Groups & What's On

Frederick Romberg and Robin Boyd's masterful St George Peace Memorial Church has sat at the heart of East Ivanhoe since 1964. At the dedication service of the Church in November 1964 the then Anglican Archbishop of Melbourne (Abp Penman) remarked that the vision of the community and the architects was that they had created a space in which to care for people in body, mind and soul. Indeed people have been welcomed unconditionally to not only our church, but also to our courtyard, garden of remembrance, Opportunity Shop, Evans Hall, Upper Hall and Parish Meeting Room for nearly 60 years as a diversity of community groups and small businesses use the full range of our facilities to care for people in body, mind and soul.

We share this booklet with you so that you might gain a sense of this church that sits at the heart of the village, and the diverse range of activities and groups that meet throughout the course of a week.

As Spring and Summer approach you are invited to visit, and maybe even join one of the many activities that may be found in this sacred place as we seek to be the church at the heart of the village caring for all in body, mind and soul.

Until we meet, go gently, go in peace.

The Reverend Canon John F. Sanderson

Vicar
